The Impact of Parental Involvement on Children's Education

Key findings

- Parental involvement in children's education from an early age has a significant effect on educational achievement, and continues to do so into adolescence and adulthood.¹

Qualifications

- New GCSEs all subjects
- Linear courses – examined at the end of the course (no modules)
- Less / no controlled assessment
- No tiers for exams (except Maths)
- New grade structure: Grades 1-9, not A*-G

New Responsibilities

- Uniform
- Create culture in which you and others can flourish
- Recognise it's your future

New Responsibilities

- Buddies
- Empower
- Prefects/Senior team

Key to GCSE success is...a consistent approach to studies.

Three simple ways to help develop your child's study skills:

- Help them to understand that their efforts affect success
 - they need to see the bigger picture
- Ensure that they spend time planning and checking their own learning - studying is more than just doing homework tasks
- Reinforce that revision is an ongoing process
 - students should create mind maps/cue cards as they complete topics
