

Year 7 pupils attending the Big Bang South West June 2015. They were fortunate enough to take part in a mega class delivered by the National Space Academy entitled 'Actually it is Rocket Science'.

They were able to investigate how objects move in accordance with Newton's Laws.

See how and why cryogenic rocket fuels are used

Investigate the problems associated with liquid fuels in rockets

