Advice for Parents

DON'Ts

- Be positive
- Be patient
- Try to give them a quiet workspace
- Encourage a little and often approach
- Talk to them – ask what they're doing, how they're finding it, if you can help
- Praise

- Compare them to others.
- Distract them unnecessarily.
- Expect them to study all the time (if they are keeping to a revision timetable 80% of the time they are doing well!)
- Make a battle about listening to music.
- Take things to heart!
